(c) Other Remedies: Describe any other procedures (such as habeas corpus, administrative remedies, etc.) that you have used to exhaust your state remedies on Ground One:

Just the appeals already identifiedGROUND TWO: Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

(a) Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Counsel failed to explain that defending against these charges (whether innocent or not) is impossible in this state where a defendant is presumed guilty. Then misrepresented his chances of winning at trial - he claimed the state had no evidence, and he could not lose, but if I took the plea offer I would have to register as sex offender and my life would be ruined and people would try to kill me - if not for his manipulation and misrepresentation of the states case I would have accepted the plea offer of 15 years (10 years suspended, 5 years to serve), instead of going to Trial and receiving a mandatory sentence of 30 years. A substantial difference of 25 years. Thus prejudice is established where Petitioner received 30 mandatory year sentence as opposed to the 5 years plea bargain offer. Petitioner was prejudiced by IAC resulting in a greater sentence.

Result (attach a copy of the court's opinion or order, if available):

GROUND FIVE: IAC - Excessive or Illegal - Sentence

- (a) Supporting Facts: The Eighth Amendment succinctly prohibits "excessive" sanctions - in Graham v. Florida, Justice Anthony Kennedy stated "while states may be permitted to keep young offenders locked up, they must give defendants some meaningful opportunity to obtain release based on demonstrated maturity and rehabilitation" - Petitioner, 23 years old at time of arrest, and never being in trouble with law before, was given the maximum sentence of 30 mandatory years in prison, which will make him 53 years old when released, with no job opportunities.
- (b) If you ~~app~~ did not exhaust your state remedies on Ground Five, explain why:

(c) Direct Appeal of Ground Five:

(1) If you appealed from the judgment of conviction, did you raise this issue?

Yes ☐ No ☒

(2) If you did not raise this issue in your direct appeal, explain why?

(a) Other Remedies: Describe any other procedures that you have used to exhaust your state remedies on Ground Five: the aforementioned Motion for Rehearing (not required, state remedies exhausted)

Ground Six: Cumulative-error (X.A.C.)

(a) Supporting Facts: the culmination of errors from Grounds 1-6 come together to raise the Sixth Amendment violation of Petitioner's rights to beyond the extreme - any one taken alone clearly shows prejudice, but when combined (after reviewing in total the record of counsel's actions), show an arrogant attorney not at all interested in the best interests of his young client, but only in trying to prove something, whether to himself or the court is unknown.

(b) If you did not exhaust your state remedies on Ground Six, explain why? But his attorney's counsel to his client to sue.

18. TIMELINESS OF PETITION: If your judgment of conviction became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.*

First, Petitioner was told by his Trial on Appeal Attorney, an Attorney his Mother attempted to hire to replace the trial Attorney, and the Mississippi Innocence Project that he had one year from the date of the Post-Conviction ruling to file a Federal Habeas Corpus.

Second, After investigation himself of the AEDPA section (1)(D), below, the new evidence did not become physically available to him until he received the Affidavit from Anna Tarrell and Teresa Lickert until May 4, 2018, and only then did Petitioner believe ~~that~~ it may be worth continuing with his case.

Third, when Petitioner attempted to file his Post-conviction the Facility ILAP Officer refused to accept it and only filed it a day or two later when Petitioner complained to Warden and Southern Poverty Law Center. When filing his appeal to the PCR, she again refused to let him file on his deadline date, and again refused to call him and let him file on his unit's regular law library day.

Fourth, The ILAP person has refused to even see me or allow me to file this Habeas - even informed of my deadline - since Aug. 13, 18.

* The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA") as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) provides in part that:

(1) A one-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of —

(A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;

(B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such state action;

(C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

(D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

(2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

Therefore, petitioner asks that the Court grant the following relief: Grant him a Evidentiary Hearing - Denied by State - and Full and Fair review of his Claims that grant his request for 1) reinstatement of State Plea, 2) New Trial or 3) overturn his conviction or any other relief to which petitioner may be entitled.
